PIUS X.

The new Pope is a priest and not a politician. His work will be to increase the numbers and piety of the faithful rather than to gain prestige for the Vatican in the chancelleries of the world. He regards his mission as purely spiritual, the cure of souls; and because of that he more nearly realizes the idea of a spiritual sovereign than did his predecessor, the great Papal diplomat.

It will be instructive to watch his course toward the government of Italy, with which, it appears, he has long been on friendly terms. To a Protestant, viewing the matter without prejudice, it seems as if the Church would gain more by a friendly relation with Italy than it could by warring on that Catholic power for the return of a temporal authority which will never be voluntarily restored and which is not needed by a ruler who calls himself the Vicegerent of a Kingdom not of this world. The help of the government would be valuable to the Church; far more valuable than the right to administer a little state of its own which it could not hope to defend against revolutionary uprisings within or without.

Rumors of another Philippine uprising via Victoria need disturb no one. There are some eager press correspondents at Vancouver and Victoria who take Oriental mail off the Empress steamers and telegraph its readable contents to the Associated Press. Much of this matter, if true, has already been received by cable and forgotten. Probably some remote speculation about a war in the Philippines, appearing in a Japanese paper and since denied, was caught by the Victoria man who forthwith worked it off on the press agency. Were there any truth in the story as it stands, the American public would not have had to wait for it to make its way by mail from Manila to Hongkong, thence to Yokohama and finally to British Columbia.

Ours was a sweeping victory in the last campaign.—Chairman Crabbe.

Sure enough! That campaign gave us the Solid Thirteen which took their orders from Home Rule headquarters and disgraced Republicanism by almost every vote. It gave us men who burnt those vouchers. But it wouldn't have burdened the Territory with such a legislative ticket if the primary rules had been Republican. These rules are still in force and the first men named as aspiring to county office with their aid, are off the same cut as their legislative predecessors. It's a fine outlook for the taxpayers.

As an evidence that the County campaign means good government and laurels for the Republican party, the Bulletin announces among the opening speakers at the Kalih Detention camp, Representative Vida, J. C. Lane, T. McCants Stewart, Ex-Senator Kanuha, Wm. Olepau and C. H. Clark, parolable fratrum. Republicans who can cherish any doubt after this of the great advantage the present party management is to the Territory must be dull indeed. Let's all hurrah, so as to bring Birbe, Boyd, Kumalee and the rest of the patriots into the open.

Judge Estee, who has the good will of all who know him, will take a rest in California. No doubt the cool breath of the San Francisco fog will do the seasoned old Argonaut of '49 a world of good. It is the home air. Judge Estee has had confinement at hard labor on the bench and has earned his outing many times over.

There was little likelihood that the young Duke of Marlborough would be made Viceroy of India. The man for that post must be a wise administrator, one fit to govern a nation. Young Marlborough is not in that class.

The suspension of the baggage order is a good thing for Honolulu. Ocean passengers will be saved annoyance and given a chance to come ashore. There never seems to have been any good reason for the new rule.

While Mr. Clark, of the Public Works Department, is addressing the taxpayers at the Kalih Detention camp Friday night he might as well tell them what became of the money.

Mr. Schwab is out of the million dollar steel trust presidency and look as far as he may he will never get another job like it.

By the way: Has Mr. Humphreys yet made that refund of $3500 to the Ellis heirs?

So far as Republican votes are concerned no grafter need apply.

THE BAR BIDS
CORDIAL GOODBYE
TO JUDGE ESTEE

The Advertiser was asked on Monday evening to give no hint of what was going on. It was a surprise for Judge Estee when he came to hold his last session of the Federal court prior to leaving on his California vacation trip. Everything came off as planned.

At 10 o'clock yesterday morning there was a large assembly of members of the bar in the United States District Court room. Just before Judge Estee came in, Marshal Hendry placed upon the bench desk a splendid flower basket. On one side it bore the inscription "Aloha," on the other, "Bon Voyage."

Judge Estee, immediately the balliff performed the opening ceremony, arose and said:

Your Honor, we know that business should come before pleasure, but in this instance we ask that you allow us to bring our pleasure before the business of this Court.

We are gathered to wish you God-speed on your journey, you and yours from the Paradise of the Pacific to what we are so often pleased to term "God's country," whither you go to greet those you love and who love you. We hope that you will soon return in health, to be welcomed by us all, to proceed with the business of this Court.

We are not here to send you away but to let you go with our greeting and our friendship.

Judge Hartwell followed in this wise: All present will second the remarks of Judge Estee.

You will enjoy old friends in California, the California air, fog, flowers and fruits, but sometimes while you are away you must think of Hawaii, as I believe you will, and say good-bye to us, telling your friends that we have something here besides climate, that there are some folks here after all; that it is in Hawaii like the promised land that.

Sweet fields beyond the swelling flood, Stand dressed in living green. I hope you will come back refreshed in health and that when you round Diamond Head on your return you will be glad to look upon Honolulu again.

Messrs. Davis and Dole also made remarks. Judge Estee was visibly moved at the manifestation of cordial friendship by the gentlemen of the bar and spoke to the following effect:

The court can't administer justice without the support of the bar. If you want good courts you must have a good bar. If you want wise courts you must have a wise bar. Everybody knows of course that a judge must decide every case one way or another and a judge necessarily makes some enemies. I want to say that I have been treated by the Hawaiian bar with uniform courtesy and with a friendship which I believe has few parallels. I came here three years ago a stranger in a strange land, knowing I think only one member of the bar and he was Mr. Neumann, now dead. Ever since I have been given uniform kindness and friendship by the people and bar of the Territory, and I thank them for it.

This floral piece I shall take to my wife, if you will permit it gentlemen, and we will put it in our stateroom and when we look at it we will know that it was a gift prompted by a friendship not measured by anything but good will toward men. I thank you.

Before the business of the session was taken up a short recess was taken, during which the assembled lawyers took occasion to shake hands with Judge Estee and bid him goodspeed.

REPUBLICANS AND THE PRIMARIES

The sentiment against the wide open primary proposition of the Republican Central committee appears to be growing, and today the statement was made about town that many would leave the party if the organization was going to be captured by Home Rulers. "The watchword of the party should be 'Republican primaries for Republicans only,'" said J. A. McCandless, voicing a sentiment which is quite general.

One plan proposed to meet the difficulty is to have the central committee rescind its action of last Saturday night, and have district committees of the fourth and fifth districts meet in convention and adopt primary rules. It is believed that the rules adopted would be such as to protect the party from the Home Rule fake votes. Unless some such action is taken it is declared by many Republicans that they will leave the party and support a citizen's ticket.—Star.

The Bulletin is satisfied that the solid sentiment of the Republican party, the business community, the men who desire honest, capable government in the counties, supports a hearty and vigorous response to the committee call; that the Republican taxpayers and householders will prove their personal interest in honest government and their steadfast allegiance to the principles of the party by tendering every assistance to the committee along the lines it has mapped out.—Bulletin.

And so the Home Rulers captured the Republican Central Committee last Saturday night, so says the Advertiser. If that is surely the case, then all that we can exclaim is—Hip, hip, hooray!—Independent.

The S. S. Atholl of the China Commercial S. S. Company is now out twenty-six days from Hongkong for this port. Even though she went by way of Yokohama this is a rather long voyage. W. G. Irwin and Co., the local agents of the line have not received as yet any cable advices from Yokohama concerning the movements of the steamer, so it is possible that she has gone to some other port or has been delayed and has not yet sailed from Yokohama.

Y. M. I. BANQUETS
ITS PRESIDENT

The first fraternity banquet at the new Young Hotel was held last evening when Supreme President F. J. Kierce was entertained by the members of Damien Council 563, Young Men's Institute.

The banquet, which was served in the grill room on the sixth floor of the hotel, began at half after eight and lasted until nearly midnight. During and after the feast there were toasts, songs and a few remarks made by the various members and the invited guests. W. S. Fleming acted as toastmaster and the program was as follows:

TWO RAIDS ON CHINESE GAMBLERS

The police raided a Chinese gambling game on Beretania street the other evening and bagged twelve Celestials who were indulging in an interesting game of Fan Tan. The place raided was just below the Pumping Station back of a Chinese laundry and was well fitted up for gambling.

Fan Tan is a game which any small number of persons can play. On a plate or anything with a smooth surface a handful of beans, buttons or markers of any kind are placed and covered with a cup. Around this device perhaps four Chinese will take their places, each occupying a place beside tickets marked from one to four. The dealer with a small curved stick deftly pulls out from beneath the cup four beans at a time until there are only four, three, two or one of the beans left. The Chinaman holding the ticket which corresponds in number with the beans left, takes the pot, whatever it may be, barring of course the rake off which goes to the dealer with every play. The police when they made the raid were considerably surprised when they found that the Chinamen were using in place of a small table, a framed picture of a well known Honolulu lady. Very likely a Chinese servant had admired and walked off with the photograph. The picture will be returned to the lady or her husband. When the gamblers appeared for trial in the police court yesterday morning the police witness evidently lacked in eyesight or had a lapse of memory, for he did not remember seeing or hearing that the Chinese in custody had been gambling for money. There was accordingly nothing left to do but discharge the men.

Yesterday afternoon the police made another raid and captured eighteen Chinese in a joint at Smith and Hotel streets. The place was well barricaded having iron doors. There was heavy lattice work on the sides and the police broke through this not attempting to force the doors. The men caught were brought to the police station and bail was placed at $100 for all but one whose bail was $200. A short time after they reached the station house Sui Yung, a local Chinese lawyer, arrived to bail them. He opened up a bag which he had with him and dumped on the counter before the police clerk $1900 in twenty and five dollar gold pieces and shortly afterwards the men were released. Their cases will come up in the police court this morning.

THE NEW FRENCH REMEDY.

This successful remedy, used in Continental Hospitals by Boissac, Robert, Velpau, and others, combined all the desiderata to be sought in a medicine of the kind and surpasses everything hitherto employed. THERAPION No. 1 maintains the world-renowned and well-merited reputation for derangements of the kidneys, pains in the back, and kindred ailments, affording prompt relief where other well-tried remedies have been powerless. THERAPION No. 2 for impurity of the blood, scurfy, pimples, spots, blotches, pains and swelling of joints, gout, rheumatism, and all diseases for which it has been too much a fashion to employ mercury, sarsaparilla &c., to the destruction of sufferers' teeth and ruin of health. This preparation purifies the whole system through the blood, and thoroughly eliminates all noxious matter from the body. THERAPION No. 3 for exhaustion, sleeplessness, and all distressing consequences of disordered nervous system. It is a powerful, surprising power in restoring strength and vigor to those suffering from the enervating influence of long residence in hot, unhealthy climates. THERAPION is sold by the principal Chemists and Mercantile throughout the world. Price in England, 2s. 6d. and 1s. 6d. In order to state which of the three numbers is required, and observe that the word "THERAPION" is written on a red ground affixed to every genuine package by order of His Majesty's Hon. Commissioners, and without which it is a forgery.

All Stuffed Up

That's the condition of many sufferers from catarrh, especially in the morning. Great difficulty is experienced in clearing the head and throat.

No wonder catarrh causes headache, impairs the taste, smell and hearing, pollutes the breath, deranges the stomach and affects the appetite.

To cure catarrh, treatment must be constitutional—alterative and tonic.

"I was afflicted with catarrh. I took medicines of different kinds, giving each a fair trial; but gradually grew worse until I could hardly hear, taste or smell. I then concluded to try Hood's Sarsaparilla, and after taking five bottles I was cured and have not had any return of the disease since." EUGENE FORBES, Lebanon, Kan.

Hood's Sarsaparilla
Cures catarrh—it soothes and strengthens mucous membrane and builds whole system.
